Hello Families,

I hope you are doing well and enjoying your summer! I'm reaching out to happily announce our plans to celebrate your children's First Communion!
I'm excited to report that our new pastor as of September 1st, Father Ken Cannon, has agreed to celebrate two masses strictly for our First Communicants. These will take place on Saturdays, September 12th, and September 19th, at 11:00am. In addition to those two masses, you are also welcome to receive the sacrament at any of the weekend masses in September. As of now, our weekend masses are Saturday at 4:00pm and Sunday at 8:00am and 10:00am.

Due to the guidelines set forth by the Archdiocese of Boston, we must limit our capacity. For the two Saturday morning First Communion masses, we will be limited to 22 families at each mass. For the regular weekend masses, we are limiting it to 2 families per mass (pews will be reserved in the front). For all celebrations, you will be allotted one pew per family and will be limited to no more than 10 people, all of whom must reside in the same household. We must follow these guidelines for the safety of all.

In addition to following the capacity guidelines mentioned above, all attendees will be required to follow our Church guidelines that were established when we were allowed to reopen for public mass. Please familiarize yourself with them if you have not yet done so.
